The Remedy to Right the Wrongness
Romans 10:9-21

Paul takes his conversation about the Gospel earlier in Romans 10 to where it naturally flows—action. Like a parent correcting one child while glancing over at the others to ensure they are learning a lesson, Paul calls us to learn history as to not repeat it. In essence, “learn from Israel’s mistake and REPENT!”

Paul outlines the necessity of confession and belief in Christ Alone and he encourages the believers in Rome to see no distinctions between themselves and the Jews but rather, evangelize them. Paul calls the believers and us to honor the Great Commission as more than just the Great Suggestion. He calls us to obey Christ and mobilize with a heart of compassion.

Who has God placed in your life, called you to serve or asked you to love with the purpose of sharing the life-giving, window-rattling, eternity-changing Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ?

DIGGING DEEPER:

What were the points of the message and how does this week's message fit with last week's?

Have you believed in your heart and confessed with your mouth that Jesus is your Lord? If so, when?

Why is it that when you read the NT it seems unity is always under attack in various churches?

In Romans 1 Paul opens with the famous line of verse 16, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel". Why is it that Christians struggle with keeping the Gospel "hid under a bushel"?

How could it be that compassion is the key to motivating us to move beyond fear to evangelize the lost? Are there other motivating factors that come to mind? How could this impact your home, life contexts, church, city, etc.?
