Radical Commitment
Digging Deeper into Romans 12:9-21

Having started this chapter with admonitions to present our bodies and renew our minds, Paul gives us over 20 commands in rapid fire succession on what it looks like to be radically committed to Christ.

Talk through Tony's outline below and each of you pick at least one area that you need to grow in as you pursue Christ and His people. Keep at the forefront of the conversation what impact our church could have if we all lived with this radical commitment.
